Dialoguing across cultures and identities.
The religious factor in Medieval and Modern Ethiopia

A Study Day – 6th February 2020
Dipartimento Asia, Africa e Mediterraneo
Palazzo Corigliano, Sala delle Conferenze, II piano

9:30 Greetings of the Academic Authorities
Gianfrancesco Lusini, Università di Napoli “L’Orientale”
A look at the religious past of Eritrea and Ethiopia: Monasticism as a case study

Adaptation and appropriation of traditions among the Betä ʾIsrāʾel (Ethiopian Jews)

11:30 Marcin Krawczuk, University of Warsaw, Department of African Languages and Cultures
The image of Muslims and Islam in Christian Ethiopic hagiographies

12:30 Lunch break

14:30 Sara Fani, Università di Napoli “L’Orientale” – “EuQu Project. The European Qur’an: Islamic Scripture in European Culture 1150-1850”
Harari Islam: devotional and spiritual practices in context

15:30 Verena Böll, Martin-Luther-Universität Halle-Wittenberg
An Ethiopian Lady and the Spanish Jesuits. Origin and impact of a religious debate in the 17th century

Dottorato di ricerca in Asia, Africa e Mediterraneo