Turkey and the Ottoman Empire: Research Trends and Contemporary Issues

EMRE EROL
Sabanci University

3rd of May Tuesday – 12 am
Sala Conferenze, Palazzo Corigliano (Piazza S. Domenico Maggiore)

How to analyze the late-Ottoman Empire? A monolithic entity or multiple empires?

4th of May Wednesday – 10 am
Sala Conferenze, Palazzo Corigliano (Piazza S. Domenico Maggiore)

Ego-documents and oral histories; the case of a Western Anatolian Ottoman Town

5th of May Thursday – 2 pm
Sala Conferenze, Palazzo Corigliano (Piazza S. Domenico Maggiore)

Income Registers (Temettuat Defterleri) and their potential for social and gender history

6th of May Friday – 12 am
Sala Conferenze, Palazzo Corigliano (Piazza S. Domenico Maggiore)

Public Panel Discussion
Uses and abuses of history in Turkey: Politics and Popular Culture

- Emre Erol, The populists’ toolbox: Weaponization of history in contemporary Turkey
- Kerem Öktem (Ca’ Foscari Univ. Of Venice), Can popular culture heal the wounds of history?

All the events are in-person with live streaming on Zoom

Organized by Lea Nocera – Turkish Language and Literature // 2021-22