

Charles Ramble is Professor of Tibetan History and Philology at the École Pratique des Hautes Études, PSL University, Paris, and director of the Tibetan Studies research team of the Centre for Research on East Asian Civilisations (CRCAO). From 2000 to 2010 he held the position of University Lecturer in Tibetan and Himalayan Studies that had recently been established at the University of Oxford, UK, with which he remains associated as a University Research Lecturer. From 2006 to 2013 he was President of the International Association for Tibetan Studies. He is currently director of the European Society for the Study of Himalayan and Central Asian Civilisations (SEECHAC). His research interests include Tibetan social history, Bon, biographical writing, and Tibetan ritual literature and performance. His book publications include The Navel of the Demoness: Tibetan Buddhism and Civil Religion in Highland Nepal (2008); several volumes in a series entitled Tibetan Sources for a Social History of Mustang (2008, 2016, 2017), a dozen co-edited volumes and over ninety articles on aspects of Tibetan civilisation, mostly related to the Tibetan Bon religion and to the history and culture of Mustang, where he has worked since 1981.

Among his publications:

(with Agnieszka Helman-Ważny) The Mustang Archives: Analysis of Handwritten Documents via the Study of Papermaking Traditions in Nepal. Brepols, 2022.

(with Matthew Kapstein) The Many Faces of King Gesar. Homage to Rolf A. Stein. Brill, 2021.

(with Agnieszka Helman-Ważny) The Mardzong Manuscripts: Preservation, Interpretation and Dating of an Archaeological Find in Mustang, Nepal. Second edition. Brill, 2021.

Tibetan Sources for a Social History of Mustang, Nepal. Volume 3: the Archive of Kunzang Chöling Convent. Andiast: International Institute for Tibetan and Buddhist Studies. 2019.

(with John Harrison and Christian Luczanits) Charles Ramble, A Blessing for the Land: The Art and Architecture and History of Künzang Chöling Convent, Mustang, Nepal. Kathmandu: Vajra Books, 2018.

Tibetan Sources for a Social History of Mustang, Nepal. Volume 2: The Archives of the Tantric Lamas of Tshognam. International Institute for Tibetan and Buddhist Studies, 2016.

(with Hanna Havnevik) From Bhakti to Bon: Festschrift for Per Kværne. The Institute for Comparative Research in Human Culture/Novus Forlag, 2015.

(with Peter Schwieger and Alice Travers) Tibetans who Escaped the Historian's Net: Contributions to the Social History of Tibetan-speaking Societies. Vajra Books. 2015.

(with Ulrike Roesler). Tibetan and Himalayan Healing: An Anthology for Anthony Aris. Vajra Publications, 2015.

“Crime, punishment and socio-economic status in Mustang (Nepal) in the early 19th century.” Revue d'Etudes Tibétaines, CNRS, no. 57, pp. 241-257, 2021.

“The Tibetan novel as social history: reflections on Trashi Palden's Phal pa ñ khyim tshang gi skyuid sdug.” Revue d'Etudes tibétaines 49, 149–191, 2019.

The Navel of the Demoness: Tibetan Buddhism and Civil Religion in Highland Nepal. Oxford University Press, 2008.