Protocol of Cooperation Agreement between Ben Gourion University and "L'Orientale" - Napoli

Article 1

The home institution will be responsible for screening and selecting students for this programme. The number of students will be fixed by mutual consent.

The selected students will be received as "non degree students": they will be exonerated from admission fees at the guest institution, but they must pay admission, library and other fees at their institution of origin.

Exchange students will be responsible for all travelling, housing and board expenses. Each institution will assist, according to it's possibility, the students in finding a room. All exchange students must take adequate insurance arrangements to cover health problems, accidents, repatriation.

Each institution will appoint a coordinator responsible for supervising the programme and for advising home university students before their departure and visiting students during their stay.

A plan of studies will be drawn up for the accepted student, that could be recognized by the institution of origin.

Article 2

An exchange programme is also to be set up for teaching stuff, either through lectures and conferences or through seminars and organization of common research of interest for contracting institutions.

Each stuff exchange will be subject to a specific agreement.

Article 3

Each institution will facilitate the reciprocal publications of scientific works of common interest, the exchange of books and teaching materials and the access to libraries.
