

International students from non-EU countries: if you wish to apply for admission to the MA program in Comparative Literature (Corso di laurea magistrale in Letterature e Culture Compare), please send an email to the Program Coordinator, professor Roberto Mondola (rmondola@unior.it), attaching pdf copies of your cv, transcripts, and all the other documents required for admission. The Coordinator will write you back and, if you are eligible, will propose a date and time for a brief online interview.

Below you will find a link to the Comparative Literature Program web page, with all relevant information about the requirements for admission and the admission process, and a link to the University web site, with specific information for international students intending to enroll at an Italian university.
