The 2024 Chair of Italian Culture

ROBERTA MOROSINI
(Università l’Orientale di Napoli)

compassing
islands of paper, islands of power

From Mediterranean to Atlantic in Renaissance Island books

with Sharon Kinoshita
(University of California Santa Cruz)
as Respondent

The Chair of Italian Culture at the University of California, Berkeley, was established in 1928, wholly with contributions made by residents of California who were mindful of the ever vital cultural heritage with which Italy has for so long enriched the world. It allows the Department to invite “the ablest and most eminent citizens of Italy” to lecture and teach in illustration and interpretation of Italian culture.

Thursday, April 4 | 5:00pm | Dwinelle 219

Image: Coasts and Islands of the Mediterraean, 16th c. BnF Paris