

The 2024 Chair of Italian Culture

Roberta Morosini

Università L'Orientale di Napoli

TRANSGRESSING

PERIPHERY,

DRESSING

OTHERNESS.

Spaces of Diversity
in the Medieval Mediterranean.

April 24, 2024

5:00 pm

Townsend Center

Geballe Room

The Chair of Italian Culture at the University of California, Berkeley, was established in 1928, wholly with contributions made by residents of California who were mindful of the ever vital cultural heritage with which Italy has for so long enriched the world. It allows the Department to invite “the ablest and most eminent citizens of Italy” to lecture and teach in illustration and interpretation of Italian culture.

Image detail: The Chaldean People, in Oderico da
Pordeonone,
Itinerarium (trans.
Jean le Long),
15th Century