

SCHEDA LABORATORIO

A.A. 2024/2025

Titolo	Korea and Korean in the context
Docente responsabile	KIM JUNGA
Corsi di laurea destinatari	AF
Numero Ore	12
Numero CFU	2
Semestre	I
Data Inizio attività	4, 14, 15, 16, 17, 30 Ottobre
Prenotazione richiesta (si/no)	Si
Indirizzo mail prenotazioni	junga.kim@unior.it https://forms.gle/wDD2JtJJ9nhdGm446
Programma attività	<ol style="list-style-type: none">4 October: Girls on Korean children literature Palazzo Reale (10.00-12.00)14 October: kinship in the idioms Antisala specchi (1.00-3.00)15 October: What do Koreans think about politeness? Antisala specchi(9.00-11.00)16 October: Korean honorifics based on age and relationship Antisala specchi (9.00-11.00)17 October: Idioms that show Korean unique culture Antisala specchi (9.00-11.00)31 October: Korea and Korean in the context Antisala specchi(1.00-3.00) Dr. Kim Junga, a scholar specializing in Korean studies, has organized this course in collaboration with Korean children's author Lee Hyen and Dr. Kim Soungu. This course is aimed at students majoring in Korean, particularly undergraduates with an interest in Korean culture. This course will focus on “Korean society, culture, and Koreans” in the language expressions, nonverbal acts, and media. Author Lee will give a lecture about relationships in Korean culture on 4, 16, 17, and 31 October, and Dr. Kim Junga will present on kinship in language expressions on 14 October. Dr Kim Soungu will present on Korean politeness on 15 October. Students must submit an essay on the difference between their native culture and Korean culture.
