(Series: Tito in fotoaparatu/ Tito and the camera)

This book, edited by Anastas Vangeli and Dragan Pavličević, explores the historical relationship between Yugoslavia and China, examining its features, significance, and reverberations today. The contributors shed light on the key events, major developments, and important aspects of the Sino-Yugoslav relationship and analyse contemporary relations between China and the Yugoslav successor states. The volume offers a timely intervention in the global history of the Cold War, area studies of Southeast Europe and of China, and studies of socialist and post-socialist transformations.
