Reg.: Memorandum of Understanding Cairo University & University of Napoli "L'Orientale".

Cairo University

To whom it may concern

With this letter, the Faculty of African Postgraduate Studies hereby expresses its interest in continuing the scientific cooperation established through the Memorandum of Understanding between our Faculty at Cairo University and the University of Napoli 'L'Orientale', particularly in the fields of research, education, and training programs in African Studies.

The scientific collaboration between the two institutions will be significant to both faculty members and students, fostering academic growth and mutual exchange. This partnership will encompass the exchange of teaching staff and students and will support the design and implementation of a range of academic and research activities. These include joint workshops and training programs, collaborative research and development projects, co-supervision of university theses, and the establishment of joint academic programs. Such initiatives aim to strengthen institutional ties, enhance research capacities, and provide enriched educational experiences for participants from both institutions.
