VADEMECUM FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Comparative Literatures and Cultures

International students from non-EU countries who wish to apply for admission to the MA Program in Comparative Literature (Corso di Laurea Magistrale in Letterature e Culture Compare - MCCR) are required to apply by completing the Admission Form at the link below: LETTERATURE E CULTURE COMPARATE \(MCCR\) - Classe LM/37 – Compila modulo

For further information and to receive a preliminary evaluation and feedback on their eligibility, applicants may contact the Program Coordinator, Professor Roberto Mondola (rmondola@unior.it), attaching PDF copies of their CV, academic transcripts, and all other documents required for admission. The Coordinator will reply and, if the candidate is eligible, will propose a date and time for a brief online interview.

Below you will find a link to the Comparative Literature Program web page which contains all relevant information regarding admission requirements and procedures, as well as a link to the University website, with specific information for international students intending to enroll at an Italian university.

At the same time, applicants must also complete the required procedure on the Italian Ministry Platform through the University website at the link below:
